There was also a performance of Indian classical dances by a group of Serbian dancers.

30 NOV CONVENTION ON THE ART OF ŽIVOJIN PAVLOVIĆ

The Institute for Literature and Arts in Belgrade and the Faculty of Dramatic Arts in Belgrade organised an international convention on 29 and 30 November: The Art of Živojin Pavlović: Tales, Worlds, Media.

This will mark the 20th anniversary of Pavlović's death, along with many activities of the Yugoslav Film Archive (Kinoteka) and the Auteur Film Festival. The two-day convention discussed the extraordinary body of work of our multimedia artist, one of the main representatives of the Black Wave in Serbian cinematography. This artist is also distinguished among many authors by his exceptional literary productivity, especially in his voluminous work about the Jotić family called Wild Wind. His importance as a writer is ever growing as time goes by. During the summer of 2018, the Institute accepted the work of our colleague Vesna Vukajlović from CorD magazine, and she gave a lecture on the topic: The Poetry of F. M. Dostoevsky in Živojin Pavlović's film The Deserter, one of the most important of Pavlović's films, based on the novel The Eternal Husband by F. M. Dostoevsky. Everyone in CorD magazine is proud of our colleague's participation in the event.
